CAROL KURTH ARCHITECTURE, PC

Readers' Choice, Contemporary Architecture

Double-height cathedral spaces, grand scissor trusses and floor-to-ceiling glazing all contribute to the dramatic look of a living room in a Gallatin, New York, house that celebrates its lakefront views.

2. SAN FRANCISCO

KRISTE MICHELINI INTERIORS

Readers' Choice, Classic Interior Design

A concrete fireplace in the living room establishes a tone of low-key elegance in a home with a neutral palette and modern furnishings—the perfect backdrop for a newly blended family of six in Danville, California.

3. BEST OF THE REST

KEN TATE ARCHITECT

Readers' Choice, Classic Architecture

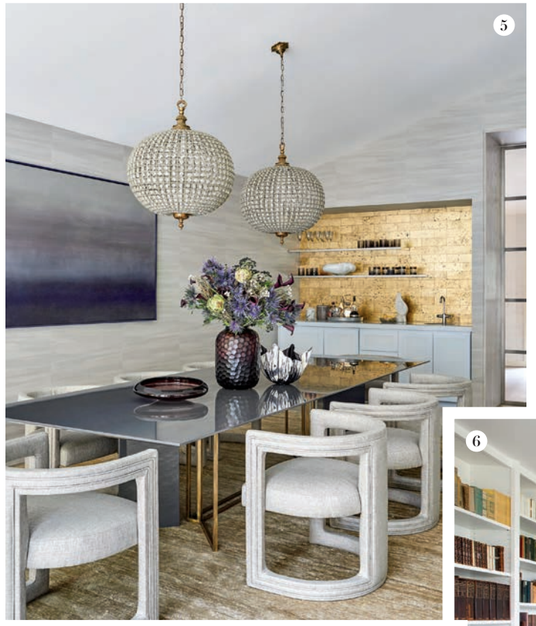

Designed to pay homage to the streetscape of Saint Charles Avenue, a Mediterranean Revival villa in New Orleans features a spacious rear courtyard that makes the most of water features, with a deep swimming pool and a Roman-style fountain.

4. SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

ESTUDIO FRISCH INC.

Readers' Choice, Bathroom

With marble tile walls and natural Jatoba wood ceilings, a master bathroom in Coronado, California, is an inviting and versatile retreat. In the adjacent courtyard, bamboo grows through a skylight, filtering natural light.

DAUN CURRY DESIGN STUDIO

Readers' Choice, Contemporary Interior Design

This dining room's wall of Calacatta gold marble provides a warm background for modern art and furnishings in the chic Rye, New York, home of an art collecting young family.

DOUGLAS C. WRIGHT ARCHITECTS

Readers' Choice, Major Restoration or Renovation

For the striking renovation of an 1830s farmhouse in Cornwall, Connecticut, many of the original details were preserved—as with the door and baseboards in this living room—while generous new room configurations allow for the ascendance of natural light.

7. DALLAS + FORT WORTH

REBECCA WINN, WHIMSICAL GARDENS

Readers' Choice, Landscape Design/Outdoor Living

A labyrinthine theme and exclusively white blooms unify three distinct outdoor spaces that range from classic to modern in the calming geometric garden of a historic Dallas abode.

8. PACIFIC NORTHWEST

LEEANN BAKER INTERIORS LTD.

Readers' Choice, Kitchen

A kitchen for a Mercer Island, Washington, dwelling was opened up to sun and views with higher ceilings and larger windows; the white marble tile backsplash contributes to the light and bright look.
