SOTHEBY'S DESIGNER SHOWHOUSE

In partnership with Town & Country, Sotheby's and its own 1744 Young Collectors Club hosted a designer showhouse from March 24 through March 28. Sotheby's invited six innovative and inspired interior designers and design firms—Ryan Korban, McMillen Inc., Modern Declaration, Olasky & Sinsteden, Shaler Ladd Design Corporation, and WRJ Design Associates—to design and curate rooms in Sotheby's Manhattan headquarters using items from the auction house's spring auctions. In celebration of this inaugural event, Town & Country Editor in Chief Jay Fielden co-hosted a special private reception on March 25 at Sotheby's New York. Guests mingled and sipped cocktails while enjoying an exclusive preview of the magnificent rooms.
